PureGenic™ Full Spectrum Antioxidants go beyond simple ORAC measurement. With five separate classes of free radicals, each uniquely capable of causing havoc in different tissues, making sure you have a full spectrum of antioxidants is essential in combating free radicals.

Increased potencies of vitamins and minerals! What really sets B.T.T. 2.0 apart is the fact that each and every vitamin and mineral now comes synergized with whole food cofactors that promote optimal absorption, providing even more nutritional benefits than ever before.

PrePro™ Prebiotic and Probiotic Blend not only includes 1 billion viable cells of intestinal-health promoting probiotics, but it also includes the prebiotic nutrients that help good bacteria thrive.

Naturally-Sweet Branched and Linear Chained Cellular Energy Concentrates have recently become the premier energy boosting nutrients in elite fitness circles providing rapid sustained energy, without spiking insulin or facilitating body fat buildup.
